Detailed Commissioning Arrangements

Capability and Capacity to Commission

We declare that from 1 April 2013 our CCG will have the capability and the capacity to commission key areas of care for which we are responsible.

Mothers and newborns	The detailed and specific commissioning intentions for this priority area are outlined in the CCG's "Clear and Credible Plan" / Delivery of Change strategy document. This establishes this area as a CCG strategic priority, with associated plans for the next 3 years (as well as specific intentions informed to key healthcare Providers for 2013/14).
People with need for support with mental health	The detailed and specific commissioning intentions for this priority area are outlined in the CCG's "Clear and Credible Plan" / Delivery of Change strategy document. This establishes this area as a CCG strategic priority, with associated plans for the next 3 years (as well as specific intentions informed to key healthcare Providers for 2013/14).
People with learning disabilities	The detailed and specific commissioning intentions for this priority area are outlined in the CCG's "Clear and Credible Plan" / Delivery of Change strategy document. This establishes this area as a CCG strategic priority, with associated plans for the next 3 years (as well as specific intentions informed to key healthcare Providers for 2013/14).

People who need emergency and urgent care	The detailed and specific commissioning intentions for this priority area are outlined in the CCG's "Clear and Credible Plan" / Delivery of Change strategy document. This establishes this area as a CCG strategic priority, with associated plans for the next 3 years (as well as specific intentions informed to key healthcare Providers for 2013/14).
People who need routine operations	The detailed and specific commissioning intentions for this priority area are outlined in the CCG's "Clear and Credible Plan" / Delivery of Change strategy document. This establishes this area as a CCG strategic priority, with associated plans for the next 3 years (as well as specific intentions informed to key healthcare Providers for 2013/14).
People with long-term conditions	The detailed and specific commissioning intentions for this priority area are outlined in the CCG's "Clear and Credible Plan" / Delivery of Change strategy document. This establishes this area as a CCG strategic priority, with associated plans for the next 3 years (as well as specific intentions informed to key healthcare Providers for 2013/14).
People at the end of life	The detailed and specific commissioning intentions for this priority area are outlined in the CCG's "Clear and Credible Plan" / Delivery of Change strategy document. This establishes this area as a CCG strategic priority, with associated plans for the next 3 years (as well as specific intentions informed to key healthcare Providers for 2013/14).
People with continuing healthcare needs	There is separate reference to the commissioning plans and arrangements for this population segment in the CCG's Collaborative Commissioning arrangements (as submitted as evidence for a number of criteria).
